Covering the Spartans

Credential Requests

All requests for media credentials must be placed with Jamie Baldwin in the MSU Athletic Communications Office at least 48 hours in advance of the game. Upon acceptance of application, appropriate credentials are held for pickup at the media will-call table at the media entrance at Jenison Field House.

Press Conferences and Media Availability

During the season, head coach Cathy George will be available each Tuesday at MSU's weekly press conference, held at the Tom & Lupe Izzo Media Center in the new facility located adjacent to the north end zone of Spartan Stadium. The Tuesday press conference begins at 11 a.m.

All interviews should be arranged through the Jamie Baldwin in the Athletic Communications Office, and player requests must be made 24 hours in advance of the interview. Baldwin can be reached via email (jweir@ath.msu.edu); office phone (517.355.2271) or cell phone (517.243.3187). Please note that contact information for student-athletes WILL NOT be made available to reporters, per Department of Athletics policy.

MSU student-athletes are available for interviews immediately before practice. In addition to press conferences, head coach Cathy George is also available prior to practice, or for telephone interviews during the week on non-game days.

Post-match Interviews

Post-match interviews will take place outside of the MSU locker room following a brief 15-minute cooling-off period after the match's completion. MSU head coach Cathy George and selected student-athletes will be available upon request. Interviews with the visiting coach and players should be arranged with the opposing team's media relations contact.

Game Day Services

Game notes, rosters, statistics, media guides and final match statistics will be provided at each home match. Match statistics will be made available to the media following each set and complete stat packets will be made available upon the conclusion of the match. Each will be available on media row, located on the south end of Jenison Field House in the second deck.

Radio Broadcasts

Opponent radio stations wishing to broadcast from Jenison Field House must make arrangements through both the visiting team's SID and Jamie Baldwin no less than one week prior to the game. Space is available for one station per school to broadcast each game. Michigan State will carry a live radio broadcast of Big Ten Conference games not carried by a national television outlet or the Big Ten Digital Network (BTDN) on Spartan All-Access; the broadcast can be found on MSU's official website, www.MSUSpartans.com.

Photographers

All photographers are required to check in on press row to discuss position assignments no later 30 minutes prior to the start of the match.

Television

Several Michigan State volleyball games will appear on television again this year. MSU will be featured several times on the Big Ten Network and Pac-12 Network. Spartan games will also frequently be streamed live on Big Ten Digital Network (BTDN) on Spartan All-Access. Up-to-date listings for game coverage can be found on MSU's official website, www.msuspartans.com.

www.MSUSpartans.com

The official athletics website for Michigan State University, msuspartans.com, Updated releases, statistics, game notes, player features and interviews are available on the official web site of MSU Athletics. The weekly release also is available via email. Please contact Jamie Baldwin (jweir@ath.msu.edu) to be included on the weekly distribution list.

Directions

Social Media

Michigan State Volleyball (@MichStVB) maintains a twitter feed which will provide in-game updates, links, and news pertaining to coaches, players and alumni. Fans can also get conference Twitter updates by following @B1GVolleyball and @BTNVolleyball.

The program has a strong social media presence across many platforms. Frequent updates can be found on the team's facebook page, (www.facebook.com/MichiganStateVB) and Instagram account (MichStVB)/

In addition, fans can follow all the action of all Michigan State sports teams on Facebook (http://www.facebook.com/MSUathletics). The Spartans had more than 660,000 "fans" on Facebook prior to the start of the 2014 volleyball season.

B1G™

Big Life. Big Stage. Big Ten.

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's status as one of the preeminent athletic conferences in the country also endures as an important component of the Big Ten student-athlete experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its student-athletes not only on the fi eld and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

The Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which is widely considered to be the model for eff ective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.

Every CIC institution ranks among the top 86 universities in the nation according to the 2013 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including six in the top 25.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with nearly 1,600 Academic All-Americans, including 40 in the last academic year.

In 2012, CIC institutions had more than $10 billion in research expenditures, $4 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

During the 2013-14 season, current Big Ten institutions claimed seven national championships: Maryland women's lacrosse; Michigan men's gymnastics; Ohio State open pistol and women's rowing, and Penn State fencing, volleyball and wrestling.

Over the last 10 years, current Big Ten institutions have won national titles in 18 different sports, including basketball, bowling, cross country, fencing, field hockey, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, indoor track and field, lacrosse, pistol, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, synchronized swimming, volleyball and wrestling.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

The Big Ten administers nearly $200 million in direct financial aid to almost 9,500 student-athletes for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the debut of lacrosse this academic year.

The Big Ten leads the nation in total student-athletes and participation opportunities and sponsors more official sports than all conferences other than the Ivy League.

Almost 1,400 Big Ten student-athletes and coaches have participated in the Olympics, winning at least 480 medals, including nearly 250 gold.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and more than 520,000 students.

Each year more than 10 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference leads the nation in attendance for men's basketball, hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations. Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding senior student-athletes who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.

Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former student-athletes to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.

Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.

Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.

Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate member in 2013, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS, FOX and NBC Sports Network, more than 1,200 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis.

BTN will be in 60 million homes by the start of the 2014 football season. The network is carried by all major cable, satellite and telco providers and is also available via BTN2Go on smartphones, tablets and the internet.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

For the last 25 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.

Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Big Ten Basketball Tournaments, the conference holds numerous community initiatives, such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service, Officiating and Youth Football Clinics and various fund-raising efforts, including the Think Pink promotions benefittng the Pink Ribbon Connection at previous women's basketball tournaments.

Lou Anna K. Simon, PhD

President, Michigan State University

Lou Anna K. Simon, the 20th president of Michigan State University, leads the university's work to advance the common good in Michigan and around the world. An MSU graduate, she began her career at Michigan State after earning her doctorate in 1974. From there, she moved into a variety of administrative roles, including assistant provost for general academic administration, associate provost, and provost and vice president for academic affairs. The MSU Board of Trustees appointed her president in January 2005.

As president, Simon has engaged Michigan State in a strategic and transformative journey to adapt the principles of the land-grant tradition to 21st-century challenges. She has expanded MSU's reach in the state and around the world by focusing the university's strengths on solutions that enhance and protect quality of life: clean and affordable energy, access to education, safe and plentiful food, and health care. She outlined these commitments and the philosophy driving them in her monograph, Embracing the World Grant Ideal: Affirming the Morrill Act for a Twenty-first-century Global Society.

Simon's key initiatives, particularly in economic development and international engagement, reflect her commitment to applying knowledge to benefit society and further the global common good. Simon is a member of the American Council on Education and the Council on Competitiveness, a nonpartisan, nongovernmental organization working to ensure U.S. prosperity. She serves as chair of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board, a group of presidents and chancellors of several prominent U.S. universities that consults regularly with national agencies responsible for security, intelligence, and law enforcement. She also serves as chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's executive committee, the association's overarching governing panel.

Simon's resolute commitment to advancing Michigan's economic future has been a hallmark of her presidency. She serves on the board of directors of Business Leaders for Michigan and the Detroit Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. In the area of international engagement, Simon is a member of the executive committee of the Partnership to Cut Hunger and Poverty in Africa.

Research at Michigan State University reflects Simon's commitment to advancing knowledge and discovery to improve quality of life. Under her leadership, MSU has expanded its research in, among other areas, biofuels and green energy, medicine and medical technology, physics and rare isotopes, safe water, and agriculture to address world hunger. With the support of external funding now exceeding $500 million annually, Simon is helping ensure that MSU makes a significant positive difference locally and globally.

Athletics Director Mark Hollis

"We gather and engage our community to teach, support and celebrate our student-athletes in their quest for excellence."

This is the vision Michigan State Athletics Director Mark Hollis has for Spartan Athletics. Hollis, who was named the 2012 Athletic Director of the Year by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal/Daily, is in his seventh year leading the MSU Athletics Department. He officially assumed the role of MSU's 18th athletics director on Jan. 1, 2008, succeeding Ron Mason.

Hollis has more than 25 years of athletics administration experience, either at the school or conference level. His well-rounded background has led to his knowledge of all areas within an athletics department, including marketing, financial administration, television negotiations, fund-raising, game operations, facility management, personnel policy, corporate interaction, sports management and public relations.

A 1985 MSU graduate, Hollis returned to his alma mater in 1995. Since then, he has been a critical component of the athletic department executive management staff, helping guide the department through short- and long-range plans. In addition, Hollis is chair of the NCAA Division I Amateurism Cabinet, a member of the NCAA's Men's Basketball Issues Committee, and a member of the Division I Men's Basketball Committee.

Since his official appointment as athletics director began in 2008, the Spartans have won 25 Big Ten Championships (regular season and tournament), appeared in two Final Fours and six bowl games, and finished in the top 40 of the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup five times. In addition, during Hollis' tenure as an administrator at MSU, the Spartans have appeared in 17 consecutive men's basketball NCAA Tournaments - the longest current streak among Big Ten schools and the third longest in the nation - and six Final Fours.

Hollis is credited with developing some of college athletics' most innovative events. It was his vision that led to Michigan State playing North Carolina in November 2011 in the first basketball game to be played on the flight deck of an aircraft carrier. In 2003, Hollis was the architect of the "BasketBowl," which established a then-world record crowd of 78,129 who witnessed the Michigan State-Kentucky game at Detroit's Ford Field. The concept, which involves placing the court in the center of a football stadium, has been used at the last six NCAA Final Fours. In 2001, Hollis helped mastermind the Michigan State-Michigan outdoor hockey game that attracted a then-world record crowd of 74,554 in Spartan Stadium.

Future events Hollis designed include a 16-team men's college basketball tournament with Nike-sponsored schools in Portland, Oregon, in November 2017 to celebrate Nike President Phil Knight's 80th birthday, and a four-team, round-robin men's college basketball barnstorming tour in December 2018 featuring MSU, Florida, North Carolina and Texas in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles.

Fueled by six Big Ten Championships (regular season and tournament), which tied the department record, Michigan State placed 29th in the 2013-14 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, tied for the fourth best in department history and second highest under Hollis. Led by the Big Ten and Rose Bowl Championship football team, the Spartans closed the fall season at No. 2 in the Directors' Cup. MSU won a school-record 13 games, finished No. 3 in both national polls, defeated No. 5 Stanford in the 100th Rose Bowl Game, and topped No. 2 Ohio State in the Big Ten Championship Game. In addition to winning the Big Ten Tournament, field hockey advanced to the Elite Eight, along with men's soccer, and volleyball reached the regional round of the NCAA Tournament for the second year in a row. MSU maintained its excellence in women's cross country and women's golf, as both programs captured their third Big Ten title in four years. On the hardwood, men's basketball won its fourth Big Ten Tournament title and reached the Elite Eight for the eighth time in the past 16 years, while the women's team claimed its second Big Ten regular-season championship in four years and received its sixth consecutive NCAA bid.

During Hollis' tenure, Michigan State student-athletes have excelled not only in competition, but in the classroom as well. For seven consecutive semesters, Spartan student-athletes have posted better than a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average. Nearly 400 student-athletes (398) posted a cumulative GPA above 3.0 in the spring semester of 2014, marking the second-highest total in the history of the department, and 17 teams also reached that mark. Additionally, 268 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors throughout the 2013-14 academic year, including 59 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars (min. 3.7 GPA). In the spring of 2012, the athletics department compiled the highest grade-point average in program history with a 3.0644. The graduation success rate under Hollis is a remarkable 87 percent.

Spartan athletic facilities have been upgraded at an unprecedented rate the past decade – including more than $100 million at Spartan Stadium – and will only continue to improve under Hollis. A $24.5 million project to the north end of Spartan Stadium was completed in August 2014 that features a two-story, 50,000-square-foot addition as well as an entrance plaza, renovated gates, and additional restrooms and concessions. The building includes new locker rooms for teams, coaches and officials, a media center, and an engagement center for all varsity sports. Former All-America offensive lineman Flozell Adams provided a leadership gift of $1.5 million for MSU's new locker room, which is named in honor of his later mother, Rachel Adams. Prior to the 2012 season, $10 million scoreboards, totaling 13,300-square-feet, were installed in the north and south end zones, giving MSU one of the top video board systems in the nation.

The Spartans moved into one of the nation's finest football facilities in August 2008, as a $15 million expansion and renovation project for the Duffy Daugherty Football Building was completed. MSU alumni Robert and Julie Skandalaris of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, donated $5 million as the lead gift for the facility expansion and upgrade. The Skandalaris Football Center includes team, staff and position meeting rooms, coaches' offices and a hall of history. In addition, an expanded weight room was finished in September 2008 that increased the facility in size from 9,000 to 16,500-square feet.

Also in 2008, the men's and women's soccer programs opened DeMartin Stadium, a state-of-the-art 2,500-seat facility that enables MSU to host conference and national tournaments. The baseball program played its inaugural season in McLane Baseball Stadium in 2009 following a $4 million donation to the 2,500-seat ballpark by former Houston Astros owner Drayton McLane Jr. In 2011, with the help of a $1 million gift by alumnus Ambassador Peter F. Secchia – the largest cash (outright) gift received by an MSU women's intercollegiate sports program – Secchia Stadium, a 1,100-seat facility located at Old College Field, opened for the softball program.

On the playing field in 2012-13, Michigan State ranked 30th in the Directors' Cup standings. In the fall, the football team appeared in its sixth consecutive bowl game with a win over TCU in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, men's soccer won the Big Ten Tournament title, volleyball advanced to the Sweet 16, and the men's and women's cross country teams reached the NCAA Championships. Among the winter sports, the men's basketball team advanced to the Sweet 16 for the 11th time in the past 16 years, the women's basketball team earned an NCAA Tournament bid for the fifth-straight season, and two Spartans earned national runner-up honors at the NCAA Track and Field Indoor Championships. The achievements continued in the spring, as men's tennis received its first-ever bid for the NCAA Championships, women's golf placed a school-record ninth at the NCAA Championships, and women's track and field placed 18th at the NCAA Championships.

In 2011-12, MSU won three Big Ten Championships (women's cross country, men's basketball and women's golf) and the football team won the 2011 Big Ten Legends Division title and played in the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game. The Spartans finished ranked No. 10 in the final USA TODAY Coaches Poll after winning 11 games, including a dramatic 33-30 triple-overtime victory over Georgia in the 2012 Outback Bowl. The men's basketball team captured a share of the conference regular-season championship, won the 2012 Big Ten Tournament title, and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16. Overall, nine sports participated in their respective team NCAA Championships, while individuals competed in five more NCAA Championships. The Spartans finished 34th overall in the 2011-12 Directors' Cup standings.

Michigan State had a banner year in 2010-11, winning five Big Ten Championships. The football team won a then school-record 11 games and claimed the program's seventh Big Ten Championship, the baseball team won its first Big Ten title since 1979, while the women's cross country, women's basketball and women's golf teams also won conference championships. In 2009-10, the men's basketball team advanced to the Final Four for the sixth time in the last 12 years and won its second-straight Big Ten regular-season title, and field hockey captured both the Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships.

One of Hollis' major goals upon becoming athletics director was accomplished in 2010 when he unveiled the new brand and identity program for the athletics department. All of Michigan State's uniforms now incorporate consistent use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals along with standardization for logos.

In Hollis' first full season as athletics director in 2008-09, Michigan State enjoyed one of its most successful years of the decade with a 27th-place finish in the Directors' Cup, the best showing for the department since 2003 and the third highest in the department's history. Ten teams earned bids to their respective NCAA Championships, led by men's basketball, which reached the national title game against North Carolina while also winning the Big Ten regular-season championship.

Hollis was named athletics director-designate on Sept. 12, 2007, and teamed with Mason in the transition throughout the fall of 2007. Prior to his official appointment as athletics director, Hollis played a lead role in two significant head coaching searches during the 2006-07 year. He spearheaded the effort to hire Mark Dantonio as football coach, which has resulted in a school-record seven consecutive bowl appearances, two Big Ten Championships (2010, 2013) and a Rose Bowl Championship (2014). He also provided major assistance in the hiring of women's basketball coach Suzy Merchant in the spring of 2007, who led the Spartans to the Sweet 16 in 2009 and has brought MSU to six-straight NCAA Tournaments. Hollis' first hire as athletics director arrived on July 2, 2008, when he tabbed Jake Boss Jr. to direct the Spartan baseball program; in just three seasons, Boss won a Big Ten title in 2011, the first for the program in 32 years, then followed in 2012 by guiding MSU to the NCAA Tournament.

On Oct. 13, 2005, Michigan State University and WJR - 760 AM announced a five-year agreement to carry Spartan football and men's basketball games, along with coaches' radio shows. The successful partnership led to the announcement on Jan. 19, 2010, of a 10-year extension through 2020. Hollis played a leading role in finding MSU athletics a home on the 50,000-watt Detroit radio station, known as the "Great Voice of the Great Lakes." The agreement has benefited more than just athletics as WJR regularly promotes the academic accomplishments of the university in addition to broadcasting sporting events.

Prior to returning to Michigan State, Hollis spent two years at the University of Pittsburgh as assistant and associate athletic director. Before his stint at Pitt, Hollis worked for the Western Athletic Conference. He joined the WAC as an administrative assistant immediately after college. Two years later, he was appointed assistant to the commissioner and soon thereafter was promoted to assistant commissioner.

Hollis earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communication from Michigan State in 1985, where he served as a basketball team manager under Jud Heathcote. In 1992, he earned his MBA in business administration from the University of Colorado. He and his wife Nancy, have a daughter, Katy, and two sons, T.R. and Michael.

Jenison Field House

The Michigan State volleyball team has played nearly all of its home matches in historic Jenison Field House since 1993. Built in 1940, Jenison was the home of Spartan basketball until 1989 and is where Magic Johnson helped lead Michigan State to its first NCAA Championship in 1979.

Jenison, which is currently the home to the main Spartan athletic department administrative offices as well as MSU volleyball, women's gymnastics, wrestling and men's and women's track & field, underwent extensive renovations in 2001. The volleyball facilities were improved to include a large new locker room, an expanded training room, a larger weight room and an improved equipment room. The building also houses locker rooms for baseball, women's rowing, soccer and softball.

For volleyball, the court runs north-south in the historic field house, and accommodates 5,017 fans in its courtside, reserved (chairback) and general-admission (bleacher) seating. Prior to the start of the 2011 season, MSU renovated Jenison Field House by installing retractable bleachers around the entire floor, featuring chair-back seating on the east and west ends. Jenison also received facelift with and new banners in the rafters and new lights. In addition, a state-of-the-art video board was installed on the north end of the building, allowing for instant highlights and pre-match announcements for all Jenison events. The sound system in Jenison received updated equipment to better serve the teams which compete in the facility.

The most recent updates in the facility came in 2014, as the locker room was renovated with new lockers and a new projector for film study in the volleyball locker room. These upgrades were possible thanks to generous gifts of several donors.

MSU hosted NCAA Tournament matches in 1995, 1996, 1998 and 2003. Jenison Field House features a wooden playing surface that saw its first action during the 2005 season.

The Spartan Side Out Club, the official booster club of Spartan volleyball, runs apparel sales at each home game to help raise funds for the MSU volleyball program. Side Out Club members line the court on match day and provide support for the Spartans at Jenison.

On Oct. 23, 2013, MSU set a Jenison Field House record when 6,183 fans were in attendance to watch MSU battle archrival Michigan. It is believed to be the largest non-men's basketball crowd to take in a Spartan sporting event in that venue.

MSU shattered nearly all its previous attendance records that season, as the Spartans welcomed a program-record 43,368 fans to Jenison and averaged 2,891 fans per match, putting the Spartans 11th nationally in both total and average attendance.

This year, the Spartans will host 15 home matches, which will include the Auto-Owners Insurance Spartan Invitational. Michigan State will welcome LIU-Brooklyn, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and Western Kentucky to East Lansing Sept. 19-20.

Several generous donors contributed to the locker room upgrades which were completed in the spring of 2014.

The Spartan strength and conditioning staff design sport-specific strength and conditioning programs for each of MSU's 25 men's and women's varsity teams. They also direct, motivate and individually customize each program to fit the needs each Spartan athlete.

The approximately 7,000 square foot Strength & Conditioning Facility housed at Jenison Field House includes the best of Pendulum, Power-Lift and Hammer equipment for the development of absolute strength; Free Motion Dual Cable machines to bridge the gap to functional strength; Perform Better balls and bands for core stabilization; Rogue, Sorinex and Keiser equipment to perfect power development and Woodway high-speed treadmills for ground-based conditioning and quickness. At the completion of each workout the Spartan Strength staff also supply nutritional recovery.

The Michigan State University Athletic Training/Sports Medicine and Performance Team is committed to delivering the highest quality health care to all of its student athletes. Spartan athletes receive top-of-the-line care which encompasses not only current state-of-the-art philosophies, equipment, and research in athletic training, but also have access to world-class orthopedic surgeons, Board Certified primary care physicians, chiropractors, sport psychologists, and nutritionists. This integrated care approach helps provide effective interdisciplinary care which both helps prevent and manage athletic-related injuries.

The volleyball locker room received updated lockers in the spring of 2014, and provides student-athletes with a place to watch game film, as well as prepare for practice and matches.

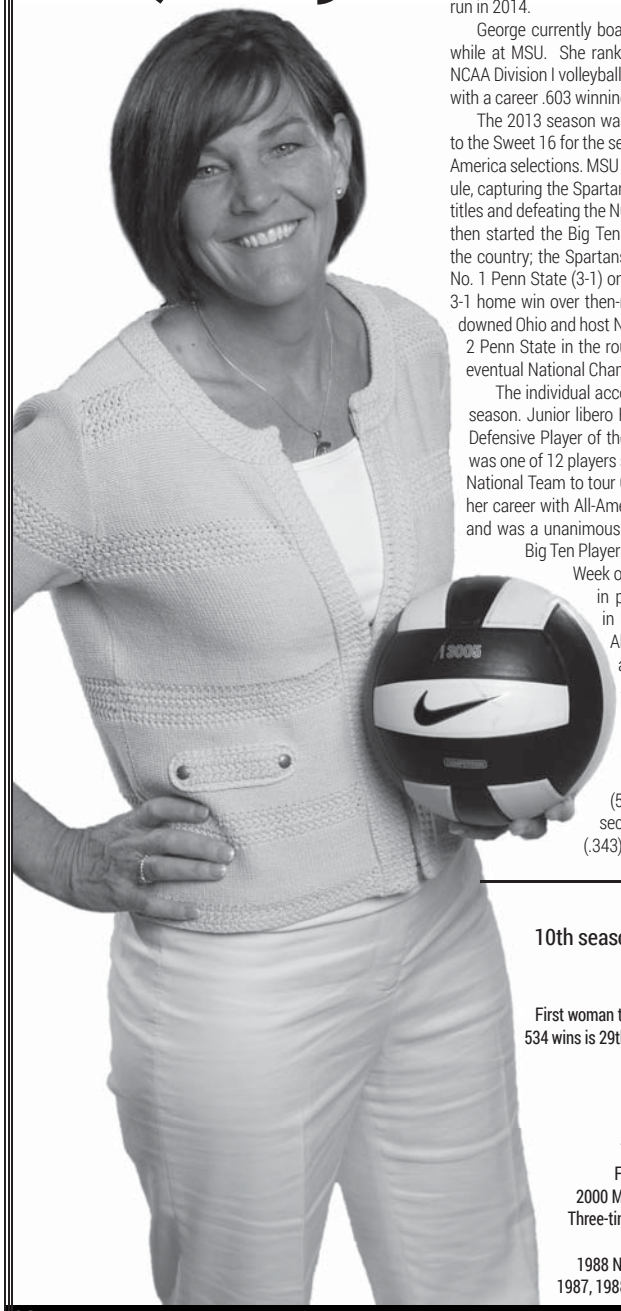
Coaching Staff

Cathy George



Before arriving at Michigan State, Cathy George had already established herself as one of the more well-respected coaches in the sport. Her nine-year tenure on the Spartan sideline has seen the Spartans ascend to one of the elite programs in the country. With consecutive NCAA Regional Semifinal appearances under her belt, arguably the best defensive player in the country on her back line, and back-to-back top-10 recruiting classes dotting her current roster, George is positioning MSU for another strong run in 2014.

George currently boasts a career record of 534-350, and is 169-126 while at MSU. She ranks 29th among active coaches for total wins in NCAA Division I volleyball, and is ranks among the top 80 coaches all-time with a career .603 winning percentage.

The 2013 season was a banner one for the Spartans, who advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second consecutive season and boasted three All-America selections. MSU went 11-1 in the pre-Big Ten portion of its schedule, capturing the Spartan Invitational and Butler Invitational Tournament titles and defeating the NCAA runner-up in 2012, No. 12 Oregon. The team then started the Big Ten season 6-0 and was ranked as high as fifth in the country; the Spartans opened the conference slate with an upset of No. 1 Penn State (3-1) on its home court, and capped its 6-0 start with a 3-1 home win over then-no. 9 Nebraska. In the NCAA Tournament, MSU downed Ohio and host No. 17 Kentucky in the first weekend, drawing No. 2 Penn State in the round of 16; MSU won the first set, but fell to the eventual National Champion Nittany Lions by a 3-1 score.

The individual accolades poured in for MSU over the course of the season. Junior libero Kori Moster earned her second straight Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honor, was an All-America selection, and was one of 12 players selected by USA Volleyball for the U.S. Collegiate National Team to tour China in June 2014. Lauren Wicinski completed her career with All-America honors for the fourth season in her career, and was a unanimous First Team All-Big Ten selection. The four-time Big Ten Player of the Week was the AVCA National Player of the Week on Oct. 1 (MSU's first since 2003), led the Big Ten in points per set (5.20), and finished 13th all-time in NCAA history with 2,494 caeer kills. Classmate Alexis Mathews earned her first-ever All-Big Ten accolades and was an honorable mention All-America pick, while earning a spot in the USA Volleyball training block in the spring of 2014. Mathews left her considerable mark in the record book as well, as she is MSU's school record-holder in both single-season (172) and career (562) blocks and block assists (562), while sitting second all-time at MSU in career hitting percentage (.343) and total blocks (624). MSU's freshman class, which was ranked seventh nationally in the pre-season, saw an immediate impact from Chloe Reinig, who was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and is eighth all-time among MSU freshmen in hitting percentage (.260), as well as classmate Allyssah Fitterer, an NCAA All-Regional team selection who also cemented her name in MSU's freshman record book in both block assists (82, sixth) and total blocks (88, ninth). She also set a single-match record for hitting percentage in a four-set match (.782 (12-1-14) vs. Northwestern, Nov. 8).

While the on-court success has continued to climb, the program has maintained its tradition of excellence in the classroom and community as well. George's players include 46 Academic All-Big Ten selections and 10 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars over nine seasons. In 2013, captain Kristen Kelsay was an Academic All-America selection, captured the Gwendolyn Norrell Community Service & Leadership Award at the Student-Athlete Support Services Academic Gala for excelling in the field of community service and outreach, then won both the Chester Brewer Leadership Award as well as the Dr. James Feurig Achievement Award (honoring dedication, honesty, academic achievement, and perserverance), two of MSU's major athletic awards, at the end of the 2013-14 academic year. In addition, she was named the Detroit Athletic Club Female College Athlete of the Year as well as the recipient of a Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship.

Every season, George's teams have attracted rapidly-growing crowds to Jenison Field House, ranking in the top-25 in Division I attendance in each of the last 18 years. In 2013, MSU shattered its program record in total attendance, welcoming 43,368 through the turnstiles, an average of 2,891 per match - both which ranked 11th nationally. In addition, MSU shattered its single-match attendance record on Oct. 23, 2013 when 6,183 fans 'Jammed Jenison' to watch an epic battle against archrival Michigan.

In 2012, the Spartans reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season and advanced to the Regional Semifinals for the second time in five years. MSU opened the tournament with a 3-2 win over No. 18 San Diego and then upset defending national champion UCLA on its home floor, 3-1, in-route to the Sweet 16. The Spartans opened the season on a 12-match win streak that included four tournament titles: The Spartan Showcase, UConn Classic, Spartan Invitational and Charleston Invitational. George won her 500th match at Iowa and the Spartans swept Michigan on its home floor. In November, Michigan State won six consecutive Big Ten matches, the best streak in program history since 1998. During that stretch, the Spartans upset No. 4 Nebraska 3-2, defeating a top-5 opponent for the first time since 1996. MSU followed that with a 3-1 win at No. 10 Minnesota, winning back-to-back matches over top-10 teams for the first time since 1995. Kori Moster, earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and was also named All-Big Ten Honorable Mention. Junior outside hitter Lauren Wicinski was named to the 16-member All-Big Ten team and Halle Peterson was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team. It was also the first time since 1995 that two Spartans were named AVCA All-Americans in the same season. Wicinski received second-team honors and Moster earned honorable mention accolades. Wicinski ranked fourth in the NCAA in service aces per set with 0.63 and was seventh in the country in points per set with 5.33. Her mark of 4.43 kills per set also ranked 16th in the NCAA. Wicinski broke the single-season record for service aces at MSU with 81, breaking the previous record of 75 that had stood since 1983. Moster has already surpassed 1,000 career digs at MSU in just two seasons. Her mark of 602 in 2012 places her second all-time in a single season at Michigan State.

The Spartans made their way back to the NCAA Tournament in 2011, the ninth trip for George and her fourth at the helm of MSU. Michigan State started the season with six straight wins and two tournament titles, winning the UCF Classic and the Spartan Showcase. MSU closed out the non-conference schedule by winning the Spartan Invitational and started off 11-1 before the beginning of conference play. The Michigan State seniors stole the show on Nov. 18, 2011 and propelled the Spartans to a 3-1 win against then-No. 7 Illinois. One of the largest crowds of the season at Jenison Field House witnessed one of the most thrilling matches of the season. Red-shirt sophomore Alexis Mathews, along with seniors Kyndra Abron, Jenilee Rathje and Becca Zlabis each tallied double-digit kills against the Fighting Illini. Rathje, one of the most decorated players in program history, was recognized as a third-team AVCA All-American and was a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten First Team for the second straight season. Rathje finished her career first in sets played with 496 and second in matches with 142. She also ended her career seventh in block assists with 333 and eighth in kills with 1,504. Fellow senior Kyndra Abron was also named to the All-Big Ten team as an honorable mention and was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team. Abron was joined on the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team by redshirt sophomore Alexis Mathews.

The 2010 season saw the Green and White face one of the toughest schedules in the nation, as it played two of the 2009 NCAA semi-final teams over the course of the season. MSU opened up the year with its then seventh-straight MSU Showcase title before taking on the rigorous conference slate. The Spartans closed out the 2010 campaign by winning four of their last six matches, highlighted by an impressive 3-0 win over then-No. 19 Michigan on Senior Night at the Breslin Center, before a record-setting crowd of 6,824. As a result of the 3-0 win, MSU regained the "State Pride Flag" for the first time since 2006, also the last time the Spartans topped U-M in straight sets. Redshirt junior Jenilee Rathje became the 17th player in program history to amass 1,000-career kills as she earned unanimous first team All-Big Ten honors as well as being named an AVCA All-Mideast Region honorable mention selection. Junior Kyndra Abron was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team while freshman Alexis Mathews was an honorable mention selection.

In 2009, the Spartans once again earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. MSU opened the campaign by winning its first 12 matches of the season, the third-best start to a year all-time and the best since the 1976 season. Along the way to the third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four seasons, the Green and White posted upset wins over then-No. 12 Southern California in the opening match of the year, as well as then-No. 12 Illinois in the Big Ten home opener. Sophomore Kyndra Abron became the first sophomore in program history to be named an AVCA All-America, earning an honorable mention selection. Abron also was just the third Spartan to earn All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore; joining Val Sterk (1994) and Jenna Wrobel (1996).

After losing 64-percent of the total offense from 2007, George was able to bring in a recruiting class which ranked No. 7 - at the time the best in MSU history - to help shoulder some of the void left by the graduating class. That recruiting class helped George compile a 15-16 overall record in 2008, despite playing five freshmen at a time for most of the season. George spent the spring of 2008 coaching the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship. The USA A2 Red Team topped the University of Washington's Huskies VBC team, 3-1, in Atlanta. George and University of Texas head coach Jerritt Elliott, the A2 Blue coach, conducted training of 20 selected collegiate student-athletes before the championships and split the student-athletes into two teams for competition. George's A2 Red Team took home the gold, while the Blue team finished with the bronze. This was George's second stint with USA Volleyball, after serving as an assistant coach for the US team at the 1999 World University Games.

George guided the Spartans to the NCAA Regional Semifinals and a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten in 2007, going 21-14 overall. The Spartans entered postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2002-03. Under George's guidance, senior Ashley Schatzle became the Spartans' seventh AVCA All-American, leading the team with 553 kills.

George guided MSU to the 2006 NCAA Tournament in just her second year at the helm of the Spartan program. George led a rebuilding Spartan squad to a 19-12 overall record, including a 10-10 mark in Big Ten play. The Green and White made its first trip to postseason play since the 2003 campaign. Ashley Schatzle earned All-Big Ten honors while Katie Johnson repeated as an Honorable Mention All-Big Ten pick, and competed with the U.S. Women's National Volleyball A2 Program during the summer of 2007. Vanessa King garnered 2006 All-Big Ten Freshman Team accolades.

In George's first year as head coach, the Spartans finished the season with a 12-18 record, going 5-15 in conference action. George also saw three Big Ten Player of the Week honorees and two Third-Team 2006 ESPN Magazine Academic All-America Volleyball District IV Team members , while Katie Johnson earned All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors.

George was hired as the fifth coach in the history of Michigan State volleyball in December of 2004. Prior to her hiring at Michigan State, George spent 11 years guiding the Western Michigan University program, where she compiled a 185-139 record. Taking over the reins at WMU prior to the 1994 season, George's Broncos qualified for eight NCAA Tournament appearances, reached eight consecutive MAC Tournaments beginning with the 1997 campaign, and her Bronco squad made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, capturing the title in 2000. George reached the 300-win mark in 2000, and was named the MAC Coach of the Year that same season after guiding the Broncos to the MAC title. She has also gained international experience as an assistant coach for the 1999 U.S. Team in the World University Games, held in Mallorca, Spain.

George's student-athletes at WMU earned all-conference and national honors while enjoying academic success Sixteen players earned academic all-conference honors during her time at Western Michigan, while four players were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. Her teams posted grade-point averages of 3.00 or better, and boasted a 100-percent graduation rate in 10 of her 11 seasons. On the court, George recruited high-caliber student-athletes, as three WMU players trained with various U.S. national teams. In 1999, two players were honored with the chance to compete with the Pan Am Games Training Team, while another Bronco was selected to the 2001 U.S. National A2 team. Western Michigan's success under George led to increased attendance, as the Broncos led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons. She also worked to reinstate the Bronco Spikers' Club, which takes part in activities involving the team throughout the year, including pre-match chalk talks, tailgates and post-match wrap-ups.

Prior to her arrival at Western Michigan, George was the head coach at Texas-Arlington from 1989-1993. She led UTA to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Tournaments, with a school-record third-place national finish in 1989. With the Mavs, she became the first woman to coach in the NCAA Division I Final Four (1989) and she earned Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors three times (1989, 1990, `92) as she posted a record of 93-74 in her five seasons. George's teams won Southland Conference titles in 1989, 1990 and 1992, were 37-4 in conference play (.902), and finished with a 10-2 record in postseason competition during her tenure.

George got her start as a collegiate coach at North Dakota State in 1987-88, leading the Bison to an 87-11 (.888) record in her two seasons. In 1987, NDSU posted a 44-8 mark en route to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Division II Championships, and went 43-3 in 1988, finishing third. She was named North Central Conference and regional Coach of the Year in both 1987 and 1988, as well as garnering NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year honors in 1988.

A 1985 graduate of Illinois State and four-year letterwinner in the volleyball program, George helped the Redbirds win three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. A team captain and crafty outside attacker, she was a three-time All-MVC selection who earned all-region honors.

George, who earned her master's degree in education from Central Michigan in 1987, resides in Okemos, Mich., with her husband Jerry and their two sons, T.J., 21, and Conner, 16.

Russ Carney

Associate Head Coach • 10th season at MSU • Ball State '78

Russ Carney is in his 10th season at Michigan State, but has shared a sideline with Cathy George for more than 20 years. Carney came to MSU with George after the pair spent 11 years guiding the Western Michigan program, and was promoted to Associate Head Coach on June 19, 2008.

His relationship with George, along with assistant coach Mike Gawlik, has given MSU nearly unprecedented continuity on its sideline, as the trio has worked together for all nine years of George's tenure.

Over the last several seasons, Carney has played an instrumental role in assembling some of the top recruiting classes in Michigan State history. Most recently, the Spartans posted back-to-back Top-10 classes, ranked No. 7 in 2013 and for 2014 achieving a program-high rank of No. 6 by PrepVolleyball.com; MSU's 2007 class was also the No. 7 class in the country and the top-rated class in the Big Ten that season.

Another of Carney's roles is that of the academic coordinator on the coaching staff. The team boasts an overall grade-point average of 3.3, had six athletes earn Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2013 and three become Big Ten Distinguished Scholars. Kristen Kelsay became the program's fourth Academic All-American in 2013 as well.

One of Carney's areas of focus is working on MSU's service game, and MSU led the Big Ten and ranked 40th in the country in aces in 2014.

In recent seasons, Carney assisted in the growth of Alexis Mathews, who graduated as one of the most imposing blockers in program and Big Ten history. She finished her career second all-time in blocks (624), blocks per set (1.31), and hitting percentage (.343), while leaving as the all-time leader in block assists (562). Mathews put together an All-America final season where she was second in the Big Ten and 11th nationally in blocks per set (1.47) and third in the Big Ten and 26th nationally in hitting percentage, (.395). A three-year participant in the U.S. National A2 program, Mathews was invited to train under US National Team head coach Karch Kiraly at the USA volleyball training block in the spring of 2014.

Under the guidance of Carney in 2009, Kyndra Abron became the first sophomore in program history to be tabbed as an American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-American. Abron also earned All-Mideast Region honorable mention as well as first-team All-Big Ten honors. Also, former Spartan Vanessa King is a student-athlete who thrived under the tutelage of Carney. King ended her career ranked as one of the most efficient hitters in school history and was arguably one of the best middle blockers in the Big Ten in 2008. In fact, Carney was a prime reason that King was selected to the All-Big Ten First Team in 2008 and to the All-Big Ten Freshman team in 2006.

A Tunkhannock, Pa., native, Carney started his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek, Mich., in 1978. He assumed the head coaching duties at KCC in 1980 and promptly guided the Bruins to the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship that year.

Carney went on to serve as an assistant coach at Wisconsin in 1981 before he was named head coach of the Badgers in 1982, where he remained until 1984. During his stint at Wisconsin, Carney served as head coach of the 1981 U.S. Olympic Festival Men's East Team, guiding that squad to the Gold medal. He was a member of both the NCAA Midwest Regional and Big Ten Conference officiating committees.

A setter in college, Carney attended Kellogg Community College (1973-74) before transferring to Ball State University (1976). He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from BSU in 1978.

Russ and his wife Sherry have a daughter, Jessica, 24, and a son, Branden, 22. The family resides in Battle Creek, Mich.

Mike Gawlik

Assistant Coach • 10th season at MSU • Pacific '05

Mike Gawlik begins his ninth season as an assistant coach and his 10th overall with the Spartan volleyball program. His decade-long working relationship with Cathy George and Russ Carney has provided MSU nearly unprecedented continuity on its sideline. Together, they have brought MSU to the NCAA Tournament in seven of their nine seasons, with three trips to the Sweet 16.

Gawlik started with the program in the fall of 2005 as a volunteer assistant coach and was elevated to a full-time assistant position the following year. His primary responsibility on the MSU staff is the mentoring of the defensive specialists. He also assists with the blockers on the team and specializes as a defensive coordinator for the Spartan coaching staff.

Under Gawlik's tutelage, libero Kori Moster has blossomed into perhaps the best defensive player in the country entering the 2014 season. A two-time Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and All-America selection, Moster was selected for the 2014 USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team which toured China back in June. She is already MSU's career digs leader and led the Big Ten in that category two years running, and is looking to become the second player in B1G history to earn Defensive Player of the Year honors three times.

Gawlik has impacted many players in addition to Moster, and has been a primary catalyst for the Spartans' play on the back line. Prior to Moster, Gawlik tutored libero Allyson Karaba (2007-10). After seeing scarce playing time during her freshman year as a walk-on, Gawlik helped the sophomore tally 518 digs on the season, second-most in a single season in school history. She also ranked third in single-season school history with 4.39 digs per set, and she did so with scoring being reduced from 30 points to 25 points per set. Karaba ended her career trailing only Nicole Colaluca on both lists, an athlete that Gawlik also mentored in his time at MSU.

Gawlik 's other main area of focus is in video and scouting, preparing reports not only of opponents, but comprehensive breakdowns of MSu's players so that they can review their performance not only in games, but also day-to-day in practice.

In February of 2010, Gawlik was named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) "Thirty Under 30" list. The award honors 30 up-and-coming volleyball coaches each year, who are under the age of 30, for their hard work and dedication to the sport of volleyball. Gawlik currently serves as the liaison between the AVCA and the assistant coaches throughout the Big Ten Conference.

Gawlik accepted an invitation to coach with the USA Senior Women's A2 program in Dallas in the summer of 2013, which provided him an opportunity to work with some of the top talent in the United States.

Gawlik has coached at collegiate-level volleyball camps, including Michigan State and Nebraska. He also served as a head coach for the Sports Performance Volleyball Club Summer Camp from 2000-04. He plays a significant role as a member of the MSU summer camp staff, assisting with session planning and budget assessment.

A four-year letterwinner and two-year captain at the University of the Pacific, Gawlik was a four-year starter at setter and libero for the Tigers, graduating in 2005 with school records in games played (382) and digs (849). He was a 2003 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation All-Conference selection, was named a Strength and Conditioning All-American (2005), and earned the Student of the Year Award (2005) for sports science majors.

Jim Stone

Volunteer Assistant Coach • First Season

Jim Stone joins the Spartan staff as the volunteer assistant coach for the 2014 season. No stranger to Big Ten volleyball, Stone previously led the Ohio State women's volleyball program for 26 years and compiled a 531-294 overall record with the Buckeyes, including a 297-177 record in Big Ten competition.

Stone led the Buckeyes to three Big Ten titles and 15 NCAA tournaments, advancing to the NCAA semifinals in 1991 and 1994. Overall, Stone's teams finished the season ranked nationally 16 times, including a No.4-ranking in 1994. Stone earned AVCA Regional Coach of the Year and Big Ten Coach of the Year honors four times.

Stone coached 19 AVCA All-Americans, including two AVCA Player of the Year winners. Seventeen of his student-athletes combined for 31 AVCA All-Region honors, while 26 student-athletes totaled 60 All-Big Ten accolades.

Since leaving Ohio State in 2007, Stone has continued as a clinician within his program, Volleyball Training Solutions. He served as the head coach for the USA Youth National Team from 2008-13, as well as serving as a coach in USA Volleyball's A2 program.

Stone is a 1975 graduate of Ball State, and earned a master's degree from Bowling Green in 1979.

Brittany Holbrook

Director of Volleyball Operations • First Season

Brittany Holbrook joins the volleyball staff as the Director of Volleyball Operations for the 2014 season. A 2012 graduate of Oakland University and a four-year letterwinner for the Grizzlies at middle hitter, Holbrook comes to MSU after a year as an assistant coach at Wayne State. As a student-athlete at Oakland, she appeared in 113 matches over four years, earning Summit League All-Freshman team honors in 2009 and All-Summit League Honorable Mention kudos as a senior. As a senior captain, her class capped a career which saw them graduate as the winningest senior class in school history (68 victories), while she became just the fourth player in the Oakland annals to record more than 1,000 career kills. Among her academic achievements,. She earned Academic All-Summit League honors four times, was a Distinguished Scholar (2011-13), and made the Summit League Commissioner's List of Academic Excellence.

Holbrook is pursuing her master's degree in social work at Wayne State, and earned the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Coaches 4 Coaches scholarship in the fall of 2013.

Kori Moster was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and an All-American for the second straight season. She toured China with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team in July 2014.

Allyssah Fitterer (above) and Chloe Reinig (below) both posted freshman seasons among the best in program history. Fitterer was named to the NCAA All-Regional Team, and Reinig made the Big Ten All-Rookie squad.

Lauren Wicinski (below) earned All-America honors for the fourth straight year, finished 13th all-time in Division I volleyball with 2,424 kills, and immediately began her professional career in Puerto Rico in January 2014.

Alexis Mathews capped her career with a single-season MSU record in block assists, All-America honors, and an invitation to train with USA Volleyball in the winter training block.

The seniors - (L-R) Alexis Mathews, Kelsey Kuipers, Lauren Wicinski, and Kristen Kelsay - was the first class in a decade to make three straight NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back trips to the Sweet 16. In four seasons, they owned an 85-50 overall record (.630) and won nine in-season tournaments. This class helped defeat eight top-ten teams, as well as securing the program's first-ever victory over a team ranked No. 1 when MSU went into State College in Sepetember and defeated Penn State for the first time since 2002. In addition, the seniors secured the State Pride Flag, emblematic of winning the season series over Michigan, for the fourth straight season.

The Big Ten Conference has perhaps become the preeminent Division I volleyball conference in the country, with its teams battling through a gauntlet of tough regular-season games and excelling on the national level.

The Conference's level of success was unmatched in 2013, with two teams in the Division I Championship weekend and a total of eight teams in the NCAA Tournament field, three of which earned top-16 seeds, while seven Conference squads advanced to the Regional Semifinals, a feat unmatched by any other conference in the history of the sport.

The Big Ten led all conferences in attendance, with an average of 2,290 spectators per contest. Eight schools finished among the national top 20 in average attendance, including top-ranked Nebraska, Minnesota (3), Wisconsin (5), Illinois (9), Penn State (10), MSU (11), Purdue (16) and Ohio State (19).

Big Ten teams compiled a 23-7 record in this year's tournament, breaking the all-time win total for the conference of 19 set in 2010 and 2012. Additionally, seven Big Ten squads advanced to the Sweet 16, the most by any conference in tournament history

The Big Ten led the country with seven volleyball teams ranked in the Eight Big Ten volleyball teams were ranked or receiving votes in the final AVCA Division I Coaches poll of the 2013 season, which was released on Dec. 23. The conference boasted the nation's top two teams and five squads in the top 10. NCAA and Big Ten Champion Penn State led the way at No. 1 and national runner-up Wisconsin was ranked No. 2. Nebraska checked in at No. 7, followed by No. 8 Purdue, No. 10 Minnesota, No. 14 Michigan State and No. 16 Illinois. Michigan was receiving votes.

Thirteen Big Ten volleyball players were selected as AVCA Division I All-Americans, the most of any conference, with four players earning first-team status. Kristen Kelsay (MSU) and Katie Slay (PSU) earned Capital One Academic All-America honors, marking the third consecutive year that two conference standouts have earned the accolade.

Penn State's Ariel Scott was selected as the 2013 Senior CLASS Award winner in NCAA Division I volleyball., while Michigan's Jennifer Cross and Michigan State's Lauren Wicinski were named to the award's second team.

Annelies Knoppers
1974-84; 250-197-18 (12-35 Big Ten)

Knoppers was named head coach of the fledgling program prior to the 1974 season, and guided MSU to 102 victories in her first three seasons. She brought the Spartans to the AIAW National Tournament in 1975 and 1976, and guided MSU into the Big Ten when the Conference began sponsoring volleyball in 1983. Knoppers won 20 or more matches in six of her 11 seasons.

Cathy George
2005-present; 169-126 (75-105 Big Ten)

George has established a consistent level of success within the Spartan program, bringing MSU back into the national spotlight as the Big Ten has emerged as the best volleyball conference in the country. She has guided MSU to the NCAA Tournament in six of her nine seasons, including back-to-back Sweet Sixteen appearances.

State Pride Series

Michigan State and Michigan share a long history of rivalries in both academics and athletics. Beginning in 1990, the two state of Michigan Big Ten Conference institutions began a "State Pride" season series to celebrate the in-state rivalry. Each University hosts a "State Pride Night" when the teams meet during the regular season. A state of Michigan flag bearing the motto "Tuebor" or "I will defend," serves as a symbol of the volleyball rivalry with the winner of the season's face-to-face matches retaining possession of the flag for a year. The flag flew over the State Capitol on Sept. 18, 1990.In addition to the State flag, each school's winning year is listed on its half of a special Michigan State-Michigan banner.

• The school that wins both matches will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
• If teams split the matches, the school that wins the greatest number of games will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
• If both teams have won the same number of games, the school with the most total points is the "State Pride" winner.
